Cloud Valley, Coorg: Who We Are

This cottage has been part of excitingly good times for the last 100 years.

Hunting was always the favourite past time of the Coorgs. Here the owner's grandfather gathered with his friends, often joined by British planters, to go hunting.

In the verandah of the cottage, today are mementos of those times. The mounted horns of giant bison, and deer.

The food we serve seems to be loved. Coorg food, especially the signature pork dish, Pandhi Kari is a favourite.

A cook, and a man servant ensure your every comfort. Besides, the host himself is around to see that you enjoy your holiday.

The gentle and romantic world of coffee plantations is still here. Welcome to a charming and calming way of life.

Enjoy the crackle and warmth of a bonfire in the compound – which can be provided on request.
